

AACM MEMBERSHIP FAQ

MANAGEMENT COMPANIES & INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS

Welcome to the AACM family. We are glad to have you with us and are confident that your membership will be of great value to you. Below are some commonly asked questions and answers. Please feel free to contact our office if there is anything you would like to know that is not covered on this sheet or the accompanying information

What are your different membership levels?

There are 6 levels for Management Companies and 4 levels for Individual Members. Please see the Management Company Membership Overview and/or Individual Member Membership Overview.

Why join AACM?

With AACM you get a multitude of components that help you. From our HOA legislative work at the State Capitol to Affiliate Partners that understand the HOA process along with opportunities for RPFs (Request for Proposals) from our website and assistance with mediation issues.

What is the CAAM or CAASP designation?

Our CAAM – Certified Arizona Association Manager and our CAASP – Certified Arizona Association Support Person. CAAM is for our Community Managers managing more than 6 months and a CAASP is a Community Accountant or Assistant Community Manager.

How long does it take for you to receive your CAAM or CAASP designation?

This can be completed as early as three months, or you have up to two years to complete.

How long has AACM been around?

AACM, Arizona Association of Community Managers was founded in 2003 by 8 Management Companies to help bring a unified voice at our Arizona Legislature.

How do I participate as a manager in AACM?

There are many opportunities to participate in AACM, from your continuing education, supporting the PAC, joining one of our committees, luncheons and Tradeshow. There are also volunteer opportunities.

How many events can I participate in?

Included in any of the levels is the opportunity to join in at any AACM event, such as our luncheons, golf tournament and tradeshows. Volunteering opportunities are also available.

*Registration is needed for volunteering.

How do I find an Affiliate Partner?

We have a few ways to locate our Affiliate Partners. One being our online searchable directory or by utilizing our physical printed directory. A digital copy of our physical directory is also available online.

How does your RFP Request for Proposal process work?

We use an online form that one of the HOA board members will complete through our website. Once that is completed, it will be directed to our Executive Director, Debbie Rudd. She will collect additional information & facilitate the RFP.

How is AACM active in Arizona Legislature?

AACM is active in multiple ways, from our lobbyists, Veridus, our Executive Director, to our Board of Directors who go down to the Capitol, all the way to our PAC, Political Action Committee. We use multiple streams to help better the HOA industry at our legislative level.
